Survey Shows 70 Senators Favoring Pact

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Seventy-three of the Senate's 100 members either are committed to or are inclined now to vote for ratification of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, an Associated Press survey showed today.

But 27 senators either are opposed to approval or have grave reservations about a treaty that would ban all but underground testing. Of this group 12 have either announced their opposition or have voted in committee against the treaty. Fifteen are listed as doubtful.

If this lineup held, the treaty, on which the Senate resumes debate today, would be ratified by a comfortable but not an internationally impressive margin. If all 100 senators voted, ratification would require 67 affirmative votes.

Outright opposition to ratification has come from eight Southern Democrats and three Western and a Texas Republican.

Those who have announced opposition include Democratic Sens. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia, James O. Eastland of Mississippi, Russell B. Long of Louisiana, A. Willis Robertson of Virginia, Richard B. Russell of Georgia, John Stennis of Mississippi and Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

Republicans who oppose ratification include Sens. Wallace F. Bennett of Utah, Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska, Barry Goldwater of Arizona and John G. Tower of Texas.

Listed as doubtful are eight Democrats and seven Republicans. They are:

Democrats — Sens. Alan Bible and Howard W. Cannon of Nevada, Paul H. Douglas of Illinois, Sam J. Ervin Jr. of North Carolina, Ernest Gruening of Alaska, Henry M. Jackson of Washington, Olin D. Johnston of South Carolina and John McClellan of Arkansas.

Republicans — Sens. Peter H. Dominick of Colorado, Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska, Len B. Jordan of Idaho, Jack Miller of Iowa, James B. Pearson of Kansas, Milward L. Simpson of Wyoming and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.

Miss Arkansas No. 2 Picked

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pamela Jane Jackson of North Little Rock, runnerup in this summer's Miss Arkansas pageant, officially became Miss Arkansas today after Donna Axum donned the Miss America crown.

Pam, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Birk Jackson, will perform all the duties of the reigning Miss Arkansas. This is customary in states which place their state title on the Miss America throne.

Donna will be busy traveling throughout the nation and won't be able to participate in the events at which Miss Arkansas is expected to represent the state.

Pam, a blonde, attends Little Rock University. She was summoned out of a class today and advised of her ascension to the throne. At first she refused to believe it. Then Mort Cox of Hot Springs, director of the Miss Arkansas pageant, confirmed the news.

Barry Will Decide by End of Year

CLEVELAND (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., says he will decide before the end of the year whether to run for the Republican presidential nomination.

Goldwater told newsmen Monday: "No man can ignore the pressures I have been subjected to, nor ignore the young people urging me forward toward this honor."

"Early in January, when the New Hampshire primary comes, I'm going to have to fish or cut bait. If I enter one-state primary, I'll probably enter them all."

He named as good Republicans he could support: Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, Sen. J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas, Sen. William Knowland of California and New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

"Rockefeller is more conservative than the conservatives like to admit," Goldwater said.

Goldwater also appeared in two television interviews broadcast from New York Monday. In one, he said that Republicans he could wholeheartedly support for the GOP candidate if it were not himself are William Knowland of California and Reps. Gerald R. Ford, Michigan; John W. Byrnes, Wisconsin; and William E. Miller, New York.

Fair of East

BARI, Italy (AP)—U.S. Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges flew to Bari, Italy, today for the inauguration of the "Fiera del Levante" (Fair of the East).

He arrived from Prague, Czechoslovakia, where he is said to have discussed with Czechoslovak leaders the possibility of expanding U.S. trade with that Communist nation.

There Are Many Things You Can Do Without, Ranging From Old Jokes to Zippers

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things we could all do without:

Girls who always wear tennis shoes but never play tennis. Any comedian who can't think up anything funnier to do than to knock his wife and mother-in-law. Television commercials showing people taking baths with an expression on their faces as if they were enjoying an orgy.

Professional football players who spend all their time in the locker room telling younger players what kind of goo to put on their hair. Restaurants that have an extra charge for bread and butter.

Waiters who take your order without indicating whether or not they heard you. Executives who brag about how much work they take home with them at night—after doing nothing in the office all day.

Women who kick off their shoes at the movies and then start hunting for them out loud just as the film reaches a climax. Small grave-eyed children who shake hands with you with a moist lollipop glued to their tiny paw.

Fat ladies on picnics who, after an ant crawls under their girldie, glare at you as if you had sniced the insect on them.

All men over 40 who stand on their hands at the beach. And all

By EDWIN Q. WHITE

TOKYO (AP)—Red China asserted today that Soviet leaders have joined the United States, India and Yugoslavia in a "holy alliance" to strangle revolutionary movements and reinstate capitalism.

An article in the Red Chinese theoretical journal Red Flag said Premier Khrushchev "has for years been agitating and pulling strings for the new holy alliance."

Broadcast by Radio Peking, the article predicted that "the new holy alliance" will be destroyed as were its predecessors.

The United States represents imperialism in the alliance, said Peking. Prime Minister Nehru's India represents reaction, and President Tito's Communist Yugoslavia revisionism — violation of Marxist-Leninist principles.

"What dirty and despicable deals they are going to make calls for close attention by the people of the world," Peking said.

In the latest Peking contribution to the running China-Soviet quarrel, Red Flag took a long look at the holy alliances of the 18th and early 19th centuries and said their "halcyon days" did not last long.

"They may storm and rage for a while," Red Flag said, "but they are fated to fail. This is the law of history."

The journal said that since World War II, China and a number of other countries have embarked on the road of socialism "bringing into existence the socialist camp of 13 countries, including Cuba."

Now, it said, a new alliance has appeared as a reaction against revolution. Leaders of the alliance declare its purpose to be sacred and noble, Peking said, and to maintain peace and order, rectify social chaos and build freedom.

"Translated into plain language," Red Flag said, "these holy statements should read: to strangle the revolutionary movements of the oppressed people and the liberation movements of the oppressed nations; to preserve the order of imperialism and reactionary domination, and then to reinstate capitalism in the socialist countries."

Government Files Against Stephens

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The federal government filed a counter claim for $334,803 in gift taxes and interest in federal District Court Monday against W. R. (Witt) Stephens, president of the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co.

The counter claim was filed in answer to Stephens' lawsuit for a refund of $307,785 in gift taxes and interest, making a total of $642,588 at issue in the lawsuit.

The case concerns stock in the W. R. Stephens Investment Co., which has been succeeded by Stephens, Inc. The government contends Stephens gave stock in the company to his brother, Jack T. Stephens, but W. R. Stephens says the stock has belonged to Jack Stephens since the investment company was established in 1946.

Agreements on Cotton Are Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is negotiating with nine countries and one Crown Colony on possible cotton textile agreements, the Commerce Department said Monday.

In addition a four-year agreement has been negotiated with Jamaica, but details will not be announced pending approval by the Jamaican cabinet.

Most of the negotiations with the nine countries involve only a few of the 64 textile classifications. The discussions followed the guidelines set up last Oct. 1 by the Geneva long term cotton textile arrangement.

The Philippines has agreed to discuss trade in all 64 categories although at present negotiations have started on only five classifications.

Other countries which are negotiating with the United States are Portugal, Republic of China, Korea, Mexico, Poland, Turkey and Trinidad and Tobago. The Crown Colony is Britain's Hong Kong.

The United States recently completed a comprehensive agreement with Japan on Japanese cotton exports to United States.

Under the Geneva long term arrangement a country may turn down exports above a requested level if no agreement has been reached after a 60-day period of consultations.

State Part in Space Looks Good

WASHINGTON (AP)—The prospect for participation by Arkansas in the nation's huge space program "looks good" an Arkansan said Monday after a conference with officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, "but it will be a long, slow process."

A delegation from the state explored with NASA the ways and means by which the state may take part in the vast programs. Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., who recently noted that Arkansas is one of the few states not participating, set up the meeting with NASA Director James E. Webb.

Jack Pickens of Little Rock, the Arkansan who assessed the situation, said "we had a very fine meeting with Mr. Webb and his aides. They were all very cooperative and told us just what we would have to do."

Pickens said the University of Arkansas' Institute of Technology will have to have properly trained engineering personnel to work with industries participating in the space program.

After the meeting the group visited the Goddard Space Flight Center in Washington. Members of the Arkansas congressional delegation took part in the talks with Webb.

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP)—The British liner Queen of Bermuda arrived Monday night reported she was buzzed by an unidentified plane and sighted mysterious buoys with radio antennae in the Atlantic.

Has No Arms But Operated That Engine

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—"Runaway in the yards!"

That electrifying warning cracked over the network of the vast Santa Fe switchyards Monday evening.

A spare switch engine, No. 552, had rumbled out of the yards onto the Santa Fe's main westbound line and was headed toward Union Station in Kansas City, Mo., at 35 miles an hour.

The yardmen didn't know it, but Larry Jones, 12, was in the cab of that engine.

He had his feet on the controls—because he has no hands. He was born without arms.

The boy climbed aboard the idling engine in the gathering dusk, put one foot on the brake, one of the throttle and took off on a six-mile ride.

The first alarm came, said L. C. Lowe, assistant trainmaster, when "the yardmaster at the east end called and wanted to know what that engine was doing, running through all those red signals."

"I just wanted to keep going and going," said Larry.

With his toes, he tried to turn on the headlight, but couldn't. The control levers switched him off the main line onto a complex of switch tracks. Suddenly Larry saw a boxcar ahead.

Expertly, he eased old 552 to a halt, backed off a ways, then decided to hook onto the boxcar. Just then, however, a pursuing engine caught up. Switchman Gene Schieble jumped onto 552 and slammed the emergency brake.

Stamps Student Takes Honors

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Thomas Stewart Harris, 22, of Stamps, a junior at the University of Arkansas medical school who says he may enter academic medicine, won three of the school's top awards Monday at Fall Convocation ceremonies.

Harris was given the Buchanan Key for Scholastic achievement, the LaRoche Award ($250 watch) for the student who best personifies the ideal of a physician and the $1,000 scholarship given by the National Aeronautics Foundation.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harris of Stamps.

Floridas Will Get Expenses

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Federal District Judge J. Smith Henley has directed Beverly J. Lambert Jr., of West Memphis, receiver of the assets of Andrew and George Florida of Osceola, to pay Andrew Florida $1,324 "for necessary medical and living expenses."

George Florida said in a letter that the money would permit his brother to "catch up some of his back bills." He said Andrew, who is seriously ill, was visited by his physician on an average of almost twice a day, making his medical expenses extremely high.

The government contends the Florida brothers and corporations owned or controlled by them owe $8,106.077 in taxes, penalties and interest. Lambert was appointed receiver on Dec. 2, 1959, while the lawsuit is pending.

Guard in Alabama Is Federalized by Order of Kennedy

Faubus Says JFK Action Violated Law

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today President Kennedy violated the law by federalizing the Alabama National Guard to help enforce integration. Faubus indicated in a news conference that he is near a break with the Kennedy administration over its policies on school integration.

He said Alabama Gov. George Wallace can gain something by continuing to fight, but he declined to endorse Wallace's tactics in the Alabama dispute. Faubus said he might take the same course under similar circumstances.

He did in 1957 when he called out National Guardsmen to block integration in Little Rock high schools, then closed schools after the guard was federalized and federal troops were sent to Little Rock.

Attorneys for Farmer Examine Files

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Asst. U.S. Atty. James Gallman said Monday that attorneys for rice farmer James Weir of Dermott had examined the files of the Chicot County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, on order from U. S. District Judge Gordon E. Young.

James P. Donovan of Dallas, Weir's attorney, said a bill in a hearing that information in the files would show that Weir was entitled to larger rice and cotton allotments for 1962.

Donovan said some farmers received more than their share of the Chicot County acreage and that this cut down Weir's portion.

The Chicot County ASC Committee gave Weir 23.9 acres for rice and 8.4 acres for cotton in 1962 and Weir appealed to a review committee, then to federal court.

The records were examined last week. Donovan has three weeks to report to Judge Young and information he believes would be helpful to Weir's case.

Weir's farm was sold by the government at public auction for $60,000 on April 17, 1962, to pay penalties for overplanting in 1959, 1960 and 1961 rice allotments and his 1961 wheat allotment.

Weir still has possession of the farm and he filed a petition last April 9 asking that the sale be set aside. The purchasers filed a petition to evict Weir.

Judge J. Smith Henley has set a hearing on these petitions for Monday in U. S. District Court in Little Rock.

Will Not Draft Married Men

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today ordered a halt to the drafting of married men so long as enough single men are available to maintain the strength of the armed forces.

Kennedy signed an executive order which provides that married men shall be inducted only after all single men in the 19-25 age group have been drafted.

Military sources said that, for the foreseeable future, enough single men will be available so that there will be no need to draft husbands.

Says Tax Cut Is Recession Insurance

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy described his $11 billion tax reduction proposal today as recession insurance, and said "the prudent man does not tempt fate by unnecessarily delaying his acquisition of insurance."

Speaking to the national conference of the Business Committee for Tax Reduction in 1963, a group formed to support the tax cut, Kennedy noted that excluding war years, "this nation has had a recession on the average of every 42 months since the second World War—or every 44 months since the first World War."

"By January, it will have been 44 months since the last recession began," he said in his prepared text.

Kennedy said he would not predict that a recession will come if there is no tax cut, or even say that "it would be impossible to have a recession if a tax cut were enacted."

He added: "But I do know that the prompt enactment of this bill, making certain both immediate and prospective tax reductions, will improve business conditions, increase consumer and investment incentives, and make the most of the antirecession thrust that this tax cut can provide."

Delay, he said, would "court uncertainty, inadequacy and perhaps total failure."

Replying to critics who insist that the budget be balanced before taxes are cut, Kennedy noted that estimates of revenues are necessarily only estimates and often wrong.

But he added that, assuming the tax bill is enacted, "I expect to be able to submit next January a budget for fiscal 1965 envisioning an estimated deficit below that most recently forecast for fiscal 1964."

"And any increase in the federal debt resulting from these transitional budget deficits will be kept proportionately lower than the increase in our gross national product—so that the real burden of the federal debt will be steadily reduced."

Action Forces Integration in Three Cities

By DON MCKEE
Associated Press Staff Writer

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—School integration came for 20 Negro children today in three cities after President Kennedy stripped Gov. George C. Wallace of his control over 17,000 Alabama National Guardsmen.

All was quiet at most of the five schools desegregated at Birmingham, Mobile and Tuskegee. But disorders broke out at West End High School in Birmingham where students started a boycott of classrooms which normally are attended by about 1,500. The students yelled displeasure of the Negroes being admitted.

Crowds gathered and male segregationists scuffled with police. Several arrests were made, then reinforcements of police and sheriff's deputies arrived to get the situation under control.

Thirteen Negroes entered school at Tuskegee and two went into a high school at Mobile in addition to the five at Birmingham. Three arrests were made at Mobile but the situation generally was quiet and orderly.

At Huntsville, four pupils not affected by Wallace's barring of Negroes from schools Monday in the three other cities went back to class for the second day. One first grader walked into the building alone after his father let him out of a car nearby.

Wallace, who had ordered the National Guard out early today only to see Kennedy take control of the soldiers, continued to decline comment on the day's events. There still was no answer as to why he let Negroes into schools at Huntsville Monday.

Farm Notes From Calvin Caldwell

Arkansas poultry processors will furnish one out of every six pounds of frying chickens for the National School Lunch Program since August 1, 1963. A total of 1,920,000 pounds of fresh frozen, cut-up young chickens have been bought in Arkansas by the USDA.

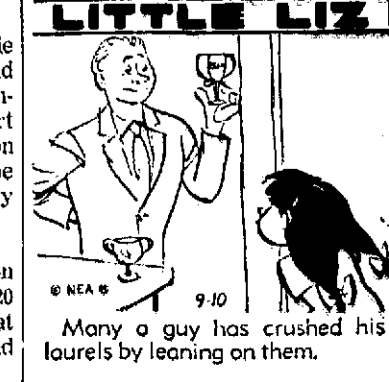

This program is designed to help participating schools meet protein requirements of the National School Lunch Program and to allow school administrators to purchase larger amounts of chicken from local suppliers. Deliveries will start in late September.

Farm Bureau
A district Farm Bureau meeting will be held in Texarkana tonight. The meeting is designed for officers, leaders, and the National legislative committee. Two cars of people from this county will attend this meeting.

Forestry Meeting
On Thursday night of this week a kick-off meeting to prepare leaders of Southwest Arkansas for National Forestry Products Week will be held at Camden. There will be a car leaving the Diamond Cafe area for the meeting at 5:00 p.m., Thursday. Anyone interested in going should call the county Extension office.

Beef Promotion
The cattlemen of this county, along with the Hope Chamber of Commerce and others, will promote beef next week. Ralph Montgomery is chairman of the beef promotion for the Chamber of Commerce. By "BILL"

Dear Dottie Quix: I have a problem, have struggled hard to solve it alone, but it is becoming too much for me and I now find I must seek advice from someone. I have been married several years, my husband says I am a good housekeeper, the children like my cookies, even my mother-in-law says I bake good pies... but I am unhappy.

I do all my own work and sometimes after dinner I sit down and run up a little dress or trim a hat to wear to bridge club. They look like the pictures in the magazines but nobody ever whistles at me or gives me a compliment. What do I do now?

Confused

Dear Confused: Your problem may seem a big one to you, but honestly it is very simple. You are giving a little too much and not taking enough for yourself. What you really need is to take yourself down to Raley's Style Shoppe and buy yourself an outfit, they carry such lovely things, and the prices will not disturb your budget. Would you believe you can get a smart dark cotton for only $14.95? A hat of velvet on velvet for a hat, only $5.95? Gloves, $3.00, stockings, $1.75. Add this all up and you will have only spent about $25.00.

The dress might be one of the new Jeanne Durrells with the pleated skirt, washable and drip-dry. Or maybe you would like the two piece seersucker in rich, dark shades by Jonathan Logan. Or the Arnel jersey or the printed cotton shirt-dress. The stockings are from the Flatternit collection of beautiful shades, so sheer you can hardly tell you have them on! The hat is a Fisk and just covers your head. The gloves are dactron suede. See them today and don't forget the place is Raley's Style Shoppe.

Best of luck,
Dottie

More Rabid Bat Bites Confirmed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Health Department received reports of two more confirmed cases of rabies in bats today and sounded a new warning of the danger in handling bats.

"These bats are migrating," said Dr. Harvie Ellis, state Director of veterinary medicine, "and people have just got to quit handling them. We're getting reports about adults picking them up despite repeated warnings."

The Health Department had nine more bat heads ready for examination, he said, and the danger will continue until cool weather ends the migration.

The two new cases came from Pulaski County, making a total of five cases in the county and eight in the state this year. Dallas, Ashley and Garland counties have had one rabid bat each.

Ellis said persons exposed to bats should bring the animal to the Health Department for examination.

"You can't detect rabies in a bat by observation," he said, "they have to be killed and the brains examined. Bats tolerate rabies without symptoms."

Neither of the bats in the two new cases bit a human, Ellis said, but several pets were bitten.

Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. Emma Hatley entertained her Friday Bridge Club on September 6. Comprising the two tables of players were club members and two guests, Mrs. Fred Holder and Mrs. Louise Kalin.

The high scorers at the tables were Mrs. R. E. Cooper and Mrs. C. P. Tolleson. The hostess served a dessert during the refreshment hour.

Legion Auxiliary Meets

Mrs. Thomas Compton President of the 12th District, American Legion Auxiliary Department of Arkansas, was the guest speaker on September 3, when the American Legion Post 124 and their wives had a barbeque supper in Ashdown.

"The Aims and Purposes of the American Legion Auxiliary" was the subject of Mrs. Compton's message. It was especially fitting since the Ashdown women are in the process of organizing an auxiliary unit.

Besides the speaker, other guests from Hope on that occasion were Mrs. E. F. Formby and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones.

Centerville 4-H Club Takes Tour

On September 2, the Centerville 4-H Club held a tour of their demonstrations. Thirteen members of the club participated in the tour. They enjoyed seeing the projects that have been carried out by the members this year. After the tour the members enjoyed cookies and punch in the home of Pat and Frankie King.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cooker of Pine Bluff and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Andrews of Hope. Lt. Andrews is stationed at Schofield Barracks on the island of Oahu.

Coming and Going

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greenwald, who have been visiting Jim's grandmother, Mrs. W. P. Singleton, and other relatives, have returned to their home in Denton, where they are both seniors at North State Texas University.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson and children of Gary, Ind. have been visiting the Norman Gibbys.

Mary Sue Duckett is home this week from Central Baptist College in Conway to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duckett.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klein of Oregon City, Ore. are visiting her brother Tom Duckett and family.

Misses Barbara Wester, Washington; Charlotte McQueen, Emmet; and Janice Bailey, Hope left Thursday for the Shelby Sue Lea and Frank Mayhew wedding at Sparkman, Arkansas where the 3 girls were bridesmaids.

Centennial Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus has appointed Charles J. Lincoln of Little Rock to the state Civil War Centennial Commission to succeed Sam Dickinson of Little Rock, who resigned.

Dr. Bernard Paul of Fort Smith and Dr. C. P. Button Jr. of Hot Springs were reappointed to the state Chiropractic Examining Board. Lincoln's term expires June 11, 1966. The terms of Paul and Button end the same year.

Negroes Seek to Enter Harding

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Three Negroes were scheduled to take freshman entrance exams today, prior to enrolling at now all-white Harding College Thursday.

Approval of their entrance to the private school, affiliated with the Church of Christ, was announced Monday by Dr. George S. Benson, president.

He said the Negroes are David Johnson, Louis Brown and Walter Cunningham, all of Searcy. They began their entrance examinations Monday.

Russell Simmons, public relations director at the school, said Benson got a standing ovation when he announced the enrollment of the four students.

Three of the four were honor students, Simmons said; Johnson being valedictorian at the White County Training School last year and Brown and Cunningham tied for salutatorian at the school.

Benson had no comment on their enrollment and said the school wanted no publicity.

The Harding Graduate School of Religion at Memphis was integrated last year, Simmons said, when four Negro students entered without publicity.

They Didn't Wait For Wax Job

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Last February thieves stole a car parked by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Nichols front of their home.

The car was found Aug. 24 in Los Angeles, and Nichols went for it last week. He washed it, bought new tires and filled the gas tank.

Last weekend the car was stolen again—from the same spot in front of their home.

"If they had waited one more day, we would have had the car waxed, too," Mrs. Nichols said.

1.3 Million Bales State Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today revised downward its estimate of this year's government-controlled cotton crop in Arkansas.

Arkansas yield per acre was estimated at 533. Total production was estimated at 1,300,000 bales.

On Aug. 1, the department estimated 549 pounds per acre and a total crop of 1,400,000 bales.

No reason was given for the downward revision of the crop, but prolonged dry weather in the state this summer probably had something to do with it. Most areas of the state have had far less than the normal amount of rainfall.

The department estimated the crop nationally at 14,310,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight, an increase of two per cent over its forecast a month ago. Production was 14,867,000 last year.

DOROTHY DIX

WHERE SILENCE IS GOLDEN
By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband can stretch the truth to a face-thee-well. I'm the opposite. We've been married four years last June and have a 2-year-old boy and year-old twin girls.

I am 21 and he is 22. This morning he pussyfooted in at five a.m. with lipstick smeared all over his shirt. When I refused to lie in the same bed with him, he gave me a song and dance about where he had been. Tonight he raised hell about the dinner. Since he didn't leave the money to buy food, I had to serve boiled potatoes.

He has got a good job. I have none. Care of the children comes first. He was in trouble with the law a while back and is on parole. His parole officer will be here this month to check up on what he's been doing. Should I tell? I still love him. —Forsaken.

Dear Forsaken: This man is the father of your children and, by your own admission, you still love him. To tattle is cowardly and will boomerang in the end.

If you really care for your husband, pull him up instead of pushing him down. Understand that behind philandering is a weakness masquerading as strength. The philanderer has failed somewhere along the line, and thus is weak. He has failed himself or his mate or both. He knows that philandering is a form of treason—a threat to a relationship which takes two to build and preserve.

All of us are expert at finding excellent reasons for our own misdoings; hence your husband's gibb talk. Be magnanimous enough to realize this.

Dear Helen: Last summer I asked you what to do about my brothers who plague the life out of me. You advised me to spank them if all else failed. This I did. All I have to say about this piece of advice is, "Hi ha!" My brothers, though younger than I am, are far stronger, one being five inches and 50 pounds bigger, while the other weighs only five pounds less than I. Now can you see "me" spanking "them"? Again I say, "Hi, Ha! Any other ideas?" —Still Fighting.

Dear Fighting: I do not recall advising you to spank your brothers since in general I am opposed to spanking. Please send me the name you used in signing your original letter and a copy of my reply.

Dear Helen: Is it proper for me to give an engagement party for my daughter? If not, could I stretch a point and do it anyway? This is an emotional problem, else I shouldn't be writing you. We love her dearly, also our future son-in-law and want the world to know it. —Devoted Mother.

Dear Devoted: Motivation determines the quality of our manners. Coming from the heart, nothing could be more right than devoted parents giving an engagement party for a daughter they love.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

XXXII

I did not sleep at all well that night.
You might suppose it was the quicksand that turned me so restless. Perhaps the memory of so narrow an escape did have something to do with it, but there were other things settling up demands on my temper that were going to have to be faced, and grappled with. Like what was I going to do about Shir! Dorrus?

Time was running out. I could not see how to stop its flight or any probability of stretching the disparate bonds of our relationship enough to encompass the goal which originally had been the whole purpose of our arrangement. Heat had baked too hard the poor cement of our fraternity and now it was dropping out of the cracks. The man was markedly dissatisfied with the whole operation. Our most common denominator right now was distrust.

Ever since Shir! had showed that girl between us, I had sensed how precarious was my chance of seeing this through. Greed and hate had driven us apart and who could guess which of these would tip the scales?

I didn't believe I'd been seen in my river wet clothes. If I told the truth, admitted how I had lost him, Shir!'s ravens suspicions would feed on my words until the facts of the matter would not mean a cursed thing.

A gusty wind bent the trees and flung branch sounds against the wall, and somewhere yonder in the groaning night a tin pail or pan clattered across the yard and the windmill screamed out its banshee wail.

"Is she ready?" I said to Daguerrias next morning.
He didn't quite snort, though the glance I got he might just as well have. "I expect she's as near as she ever will be," he grumpily said with a shrug that disclaimed any part in such foolishness.

It was obvious enough he would have liked to say more, but a considering look at my face did not encourage it.
"Where's Shir!?" I asked, and he managed to shrug out from under that, also. I hadn't seen Dorus since that business with Linda and now that I'd had time to think more about it I'd have been as well suited never to have looked at him again.

One of Shir!'s hands, building a smoke, said, "A man would think that coral was high enough to hold anything." He glanced at me over cupped fists and said, watching: "One of them geldin's is gone... the zebra-kneed dun. Their eyes were all digging at me. I could see they'd talked this over, perhaps with Shir!. He might even have gone off looking for the critter. "I got rid of him," I said, making it plain by my tone it was the end of the matter.

I turned back to Daguerrias. "You got those cowboy shoes off her yet?"
His narrow eyes stared. "You surely ain't serious?"
I looked at him grimly. "Where is she? Who's with her?"
He blew out his cheeks. "I guess you'll find her in the barn." Shir!, at least, hadn't killed her.

This much was evident as I charged through the door. She was still on her feet, whickering and fretful as I-belatedly cautious-hauled up to consider each black lump of shadow in the roundabout threat of that heat-sticky gloom.

Stamping, impatient, she twisted her head to peer over a shoulder as, caught up in dark fancies, I continued to stare.
Daguerrias appeared. "I kept the water away from her. She got her regular ration of everything last."

"Fetch her outside," I said.
She looked all right I thought when they came out. But it did rather seem as though there wasn't much fire in her. This close to a race most of the running stuff I'd seen would have been pretty panicky. I went over her from teeth to tail and, while I'm far from being any part of an authority, I couldn't find any indication she was ailing or had been tampered with. I had him move her around and watched the way she put down her feet. Even so I wasn't satisfied. I had him jump her over a stob.

"All right," I said, unable to think of any additional tests. "Better get those shoes off. When are you baiting her?"
He mumbled. "Pretty soon." and I could see the sullenness wrinkling his face.
"Have you walked her this morning?"
"You got me pegged for a fool?"
"Keep the water away and -"
"You know so much why don't you take care of her!" With the red rushing into his cheeks he snarled: "You can ride 'er, too!" and, flinging down her rope and the brush he'd been holding, went tearing off toward his quarters like a cat with its coat wet.

9th Unsolved Strangling at Boston
SALEM, Mass. (AP)—The ninth in the series of unsolved stranglings of women in Greater Boston in the last 15 months has revived the fear that had subsided since the last such slaying in December, 1962.

The latest victim was Mrs. Evelyn Corbin, a blonde divorcee who lived alone.
A year ago, women in Boston and surrounding communities lived in fear of the killer of killers responsible for the mysterious slayings.

Doors and windows were kept securely bolted. Police warned women, especially those living alone, against letting strangers into their apartments.
Since last December there had been no slayings that appeared linked to the earlier series until Sunday when the body of Mrs. Corbin, who observed her 51st birthday Friday, was found sprawled across a bed in her apartment.

A medical examiner said she was strangled by two mismatched nylon stockings found wrapped around her neck. Another nylon stocking was wrapped around her ankle and two others were cut up on the bed.

Russia Boots Out Chinese Sneak-ins
MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet authorities have booted out the crew and Chinese passengers of the Peking-Moscow Express, charging they tried to sneak in anti-Soviet propaganda and staged a sitdown strike when the literature was seized.

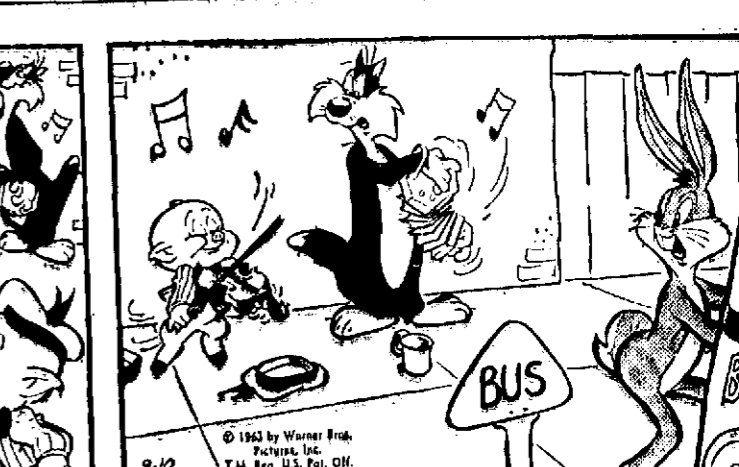

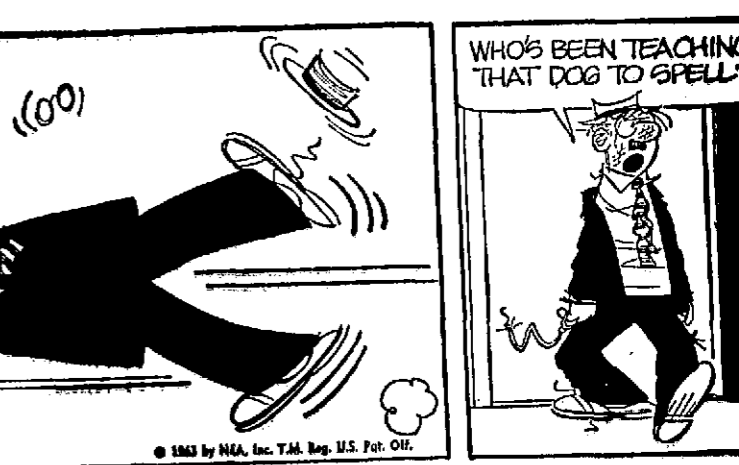

The incident, which marked the Soviet Union's second charge of propaganda smuggling against the Red Chinese, occurred over the weekend at Nauskhi on the Soviet-Mongolian border about 2,700 miles east of Moscow.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry in a note handed to the Red Chinese Embassy accused the Chinese of trying to prevent Soviet officials from inspecting the train when it crossed the border Saturday.

The note said the Chinese locked the customs men in the train after the officials had seized literature "of a character hostile to the Soviet Union."

Grand Jury Session
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The federal Grand Jury for the Eastern District of Arkansas will hold its fall session Wednesday at Little Rock. The jury will be empaneled by Judge Gordon E. Young, U.S. Atty. Robert D. Smith said he planned to present 74 cases during the two to three-day session. Twenty three persons have been called for jury duty.

Hall Making Drive for the Batting Title

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Outfielder Jimmie Hall is making a drive for American League rookie honors with his bat. So is pitcher Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox.

Hall batted his 30th and 31st home runs for the Minnesota Twins Monday night in a 7-4 victory over Cleveland, tying the league home run record for rookies set by Ted Williams in 1939.

Peters won his 18th game and the 12th in his last 13 games 9-4 over the Baltimore Orioles. He rapped two hits, a single and a double, for his 18th and 19th hits of the year. Both drove in runs.

In other AL action, the New York Yankees blew a 6-0 lead as their pennant clinching drive stalled in a 7-6 loss to Kansas City.

The Detroit Tigers swept a doubleheader from the Washington Senators, 1-0 and 10-7, and the Boston Red Sox trimmed the Los Angeles Angels 5-2.

In the National League, the St. Louis Cardinals closed to within three games of the Los Angeles Dodgers by defeating the Chicago Cubs 6-0.

Milwaukee took Cincinnati twice, 9-2 and 7-4, and the New York Mets whipped the Philadelphia Phillies 6-3, in the only games scheduled.

Hall's two homers ran his batting average to .266—not bad in a league where .284 gets you into the top ten—and his RBI total to 72. Ahead is the major league rookie home run mark of 38, by Wally Berger and Frank Robinson.

Peters has three home runs, a triple and four doubles in his 19 hits, and has 12 RBIs. He is hitting .250.

That is much higher than his earned run average which is 1.95, the best in the major leagues for starting pitchers. Peters has 12 complete games and leads the American League in strikeouts with 178.

His immediate target is 20 victories. The last rookie to reach that total was Bob Grim of the Yankees in 1954.

Jim Bouton of the Yankees was shooting for his 20th against the Athletics and had things well under control going into the seventh. After he gave up a hit and a walk, Steve Hamilton relieved. His contribution was three walks and a two-run single.

That made it 6-3 and brought on Hal Reniff. Reniff walked another run home, a fifth scored on a double play and Charley Lau singled home the tying run. In the eighth, Bobby DeGrego singled, went to third when Reniff threw wild on a pickoff attempt and scored on Jerry Lumpe's punt.

Detroit got its only run in the opener off Claude Osteen on a Washington error. Jim Bunning went eight scoreless innings and Terry Fox saved the shutout when Bunning left in the ninth inning with a pulled leg muscle.

Fox also put down a Senator rally in the second game, Senators' rookie Bob Baird didn't survive the first inning.

The Red Sox came from behind with four in the ninth to give Earl Wilson his 10th victory. Lu Clinton tripled the tying run home and scored on a pinch single by Dick Williams.

PITCHING — Curt Simmons, Cardinals, pitched five-hitter for 30th shutout of career, blanking Chicago Cubs 6-0 and moving second-place St. Louis to within three games of National League leading Los Angeles.

BATTING — Jimmie Hall, Twins, hit 30th and 31st home runs in 7-4 triumph over Cleveland, tying Ted Williams' American League record for most homers by a rookie, set in 1939.

OWLS RATED — This is another in a series discussing Southwest Conference football prospects.

RICE — HOUSTON (AP) — Rice has the fewest returning lettermen of any team in the Southwest Conference (15) and only seven additional squadmen, yet the Owls are rated strong contenders if the almost prohibitive co-favorites, Texas and Arkansas, should unexpectedly stumble.

Perhaps this is an indication of the solid respect the veteran observers and "experts" have for Coach Jess Neely, who is due to become the champ of the conference for most seasons as head coach. Neely and current athletic director Matty Bell of Southern Methodist are co-holders of the record as head coach for 23 campaigns each.

Rice had a 2-6-2 record in a fierce 1962 schedule. The schedule is an awesome this year. But despite all this, Neely and his aides and players are displaying a quiet, determined confidence that the Owls will improve on that rare subpar record of last fall.

The lettermen are thin numerically but robust physically and scattered at various key positions. Some squadmen who weren't quite ready last year seem ready now. The freshmen won only one game but a few of the rookies are expected to help.

Probably the key players are center Malcolm Walker and quarterback Walter McReynolds, both juniors. They are, respectively, the defensive and offensive signal-callers. Both were splendid as sophomores.

But they are not the only "name" players on one of the hottest squads of Neely's regime. John Mims, 258, is a two-year letterman tackle who is unusually quick for his size.

Paul Piper and Russell Wyatt are 1-2 junior letterman fullbacks who should give Rice the best duo at that post in the league. Jerry Kelley, John Sylvester and George Parry are three fine ends and pass receivers—with Parry getting a trial to be the starting wingback as well as top utility man at end. Johnny Nichols is an experienced, highly capable guard.

Sophomores Gene Walker and Ronnie Ulbrich currently are rated as starters at tailback and guard respectively.

Simmons in Win as Cards Gain ½ Game

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Curt Simmons, admittedly working on his "second career," has reached another lofty plateau while moving the challenging St. Louis Cardinals to within three games of the National League lead in Los Angeles Dodgers.

The 34-year-old left-hander posted the 30th shutout of his career Monday night, stopping the Chicago Cubs 6-0 on five hits as the streaking Cardinals kept the pressure on the Dodgers by rolling to their 12th victory in 13 games.

The Cardinals haven't been this close to the front-runners since July 4. The Dodgers, who were not scheduled Monday night, have 19 games remaining to the Cardinals' 17, including a three-game series between the two teams at St. Louis starting next Monday.

While Simmons took care of the pitching, Bill White took care of the punch for the Cardinals, becoming the third National League pitcher to reach the 100-RBI level by driving in three runs with a double and two singles.

Tonight, the Cardinals will again play the Cubs, sending Bob Gibson, 16-8, to the mound, against Chicago's Glen Hobbie, 7-9. The Dodgers will start Sandy Koufax, 22-5, at Pittsburgh against Don Cardwell, 13-13.

In the only other NL game scheduled Monday, third-place Milwaukee swept a doubleheader from Cincinnati 9-2 and 7-4, and the New York Mets defeated Philadelphia 6-3.

Kansas City knocked off the American League leading New York Yankees 7-6, the Chicago White Sox belted Baltimore 9-4, Minnesota whipped Cleveland 7-4, Boston downed the Los Angeles Angels 5-2 and Detroit took a pair from Washington, 1-0 and 10-7.

Simmons, registering his second straight shutout and his fifth of the season, got into his only jam in the sixth inning when he was touched for a double and an infield hit with two out. Simmons then bore down and got Ron Santo to pop up.

Rookie Bob Sadowski won his fourth straight game for the Braves in the opener, limiting the Reds to six hits and bringing his record to 5-5. Eddie Mathews drove in three runs with a pair of singles while Gordy Coleman accounted for the Cincinnati runs with two homers.

In the nightcap, Hank Aaron tagged his 39th homer, with a man aboard in the seventh inning, to clinch it and extend Milwaukee's winning streak to seven games. Bob Hendley got the victory.

Consecutive first-inning homers by Ron Hunt and Jim Hickman started the Mets off and Roger Craig managed to hold off the Phillies the rest of the way on seven hits. Craig is now 5-0. Don Hoak hit a homer for Philadelphia.

Six Negroes Enrolled at Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Six Negroes entered the first and second grades of four previously white schools quietly today, but the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People still was demanding more extensive integration.

The Hot Springs branch of the NAACP last week told the school board to change its assignment practices or face court action. The board assigned the six Negroes under the state pupil placement law.

The NAACP claims the board is using the law to hold integration to a token basis.

A Negro boy and girl entered East Side School, a girl went to Greenwood, one girl to Rix School and two boys to Jones School. There were no incidents and no crowds gathered. Police said they stayed in the background, but no officers were seen by newsmen in the vicinity of the schools.

Hot Springs was the third Arkansas city to desegregate elementary schools peacefully in the last 11 days. Little Rock opened its elementary schools to 15 Negroes Aug. 28. Pine Bluff admitted six Negroes to once-white schools last week.

State Has Share
WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansas will receive $49994 next week as its share of more than $26 million in resource receipts from federal lands in the state. The money will come from receipts from mineral leases, grazing leases, timber sales and other resource sales for the year ended June 30.

Biggest Stockholder
MEMPHIS (AP) — Mississippi River Fuel Corp. of St. Louis became the largest single stockholder in John A. Denie's Sons Co., Memphis building materials firm, with purchase of 200,000 shares for $1.2 million, it was revealed Saturday. Robert R. Milner, president of Denie's said no policy change is expected.

Injuries Fatal
WEST PLAINS, Mo. (AP) — Ivan Fanning, 45, of Rector, Ark., injured when his truck turned over near Thayer Mo. last Wednesday, died Saturday in a West Plains, Mo. hospital. Ollie V. Smith, 55, and Derald E. Wallace, 47, both of Rector, were also injured when the Ark-Mo Power Co. truck left the highway. They have been taken off the serious list.

Fighting Is Reported in Vientiane

VIENTIANE (AP) — Sharp fighting broke out early today in downtown Vientiane between right-wing and pro-Communist Pathet Lao forces, plunging Laos into a new crisis.

A right-wing spokesman said one Pathet Lao soldier was killed and another wounded in the two-hour clash, during which grenades and gunfire were exchanged.

A reliable source reported two civilians, a Filipino attached to a hospital and a Laotian, were killed.

Neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma immediately postponed for at least 24 hours his scheduled departure for New York to attend the opening session of the United Nations Sept. 17. He had planned to leave today as head of a government delegation.

There was no immediate explanation as to the reason for the shooting, which shattered a calm of several months.

Right-wing troops were deployed throughout the city and armed guards were posted at cattle offices and radio stations.

Associated Press correspondent Antoine Yared was arrested while reporting the battle and was detained for six hours by right-wing army and security forces. He was taken to a police station.

No charges were filed. A police officer struck him with his fist when he asked why he was being held.

Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, leader of the right-wing forces and deputy premier in the coalition, personally sent his aide with orders to release Yared immediately.

Rabid Dog Bite Proves Fatal

ROME (AP) — A British ballet student died early today in a Rome hospital of rabies from a dog bite in the face.

Diana Celia Hall, 12, of Bradford, was bitten at the ballet academy of the Roma Opera Theater on Aug. 23 by a black police dog known to all students at the school.

The dog was found to be rabid and was destroyed. Diana was given anti-rabies injections. Doctors said the treatment often is ineffective when someone has been bitten in the upper areas of the body, from where the rabies virus can travel more quickly to the central nervous system.

Police Chief Re-instated

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — John Ermy was returned to his job as police chief today by the Hot Springs Civil Service Commission.

Ermy retired in 1960 because of ill health. He was succeeded by Milford Sanders who retired Aug. 1 because of ill health.

Joe Crain was appointed to succeed Sanders but Ermy said he was in better physical condition and wanted his job back.

The Police Pension Board ruled that Ermy should be reinstated to the pension and relief fund and the payroll, and the Civil Service Commission followed up by naming him chief.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett issued an opinion on the case saying the officer who retired because of health must return when he is well or lose his pension.

Ermy is 50. Crain was appointed to the newly-created job of acting captain.

Broyles Is Crossing His Fingers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Planning for Razorback fall football workouts is on a "day-to-day" basis Coach Frank Broyles said Monday, "until some of our crimples get well."

The Porkers have been plagued with injuries this season, with as high as 20 men being out.

Prospects' brightened Monday when seven players who had to miss the Saturday practice were back at work.

The team still had its troubles, though. Coach Doug Dickey separated his shoulder.

Broyles grinned, "he did it trying to show (fullback) Stan Sparks how not to separate his." Two other Porker coaches are sidelined with injuries—Steed White with a broken toe and Mervin Johnson with a sprained ankle.

Back for the Monday workouts, along with Sparks, were tackle Billy Clay, guard Jim Williams, wingback George Rea Walker, fullbacks Jerry Jones and Bobby Reynolds and tailback Dwayne Cox. Guard Jerry Howard made the morning workout Monday, but dropped out in the afternoon with a pulled muscle.

The Hogs are still missing key linemen Tommy Brasher, Buddy Tackett and Mike Hales and sophomore back Jerry Mooty.

Broyles said the Porkers "didn't know their assignments" Monday. "We had more busted assignments today than we did the first day. We moved four people into positions they weren't familiar with."

The Razorbacks worked out Monday morning in shorts and jerseys and had a filmed no-tackling scrimmage in the afternoon.

Bipartisan Push Gains Momentum

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bipartisan drive in the Senate to ratify the limited nuclear test-ban treaty has gathered momentum.

President Kennedy is planning to try to help it along with a letter to the Senate, perhaps Wednesday.

The letter is intended, according to Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, to "dispel doubt and resolve some of the apprehensions and misgivings."

Dirksen added his weight to the ratification drive Monday. After a meeting with Kennedy and Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Dirksen said he will use Kennedy's letter as the basis for a Senate speech urging ratification without reservations.

Formal debate on the treaty got under way Tuesday.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, appealed for ratification of the treaty to help the world "break out of the fatal cycle."

Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., a member of the Preparedness subcommittee—a center of opposition to the treaty—followed Fulbright to voice his own strong support.

Saltonstall said the treaty, in substance, is similar to that offered the Russians by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1959 and by Kennedy in 1962.

Dirksen said a demand by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., for a reservation postponing the effectiveness of the treaty until the Soviet Union withdraws its troops and weapons from Cuba was discussed at the White House meeting.

"I could not go along with Barry's proposal," Dirksen told newsmen. "To me, it would be a confession of weakness. It would be saying, 'We can't deal with Castro, therefore we'll get Uncle Nikita to deal with him.'"

Track Plans Stamps to Ticket Losers

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) — Latonia Race Course shook the very foundations of the racing world two weeks ago by announcing it would give trading stamps to women who held losing tickets and the innovation has proven very successful.

Fifteen women interviewed at the track stamp booth all thought this was just about the greatest thing that has happened in the history of the thoroughbreds.

One elderly woman was having a good time even though she had lost about $200 through the first six races.

Asked how she felt about her luck, she opened a purse about the size of a Texas watermelon and said, "Look at these (the stamps). Just think of all the nice Christmas presents I can get for my grandchildren."

Helen Zeis, of Erlanger, Ky., said, "It makes losing a lot nicer. I can have a good time this way and get an awful lot of things for the stamps."

Another woman remarked, "At least I don't go home mad now."

Trading stamps are given only for losing $2 win, place and show tickets which were bought at special windows.

The stamps are given only on Friday, which is designated as "Ladies Day." The track gives the same amount of trading stamps that a person would receive for a like amount of money spent at a grocery or drug store.

Grid Injury Fatal to a Rookie

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Stone Johnson, a rookie back for the Kansas City Chiefs, died at a hospital Sunday night, apparently of injuries received in an exhibition professional football game here Aug. 31.

A post-mortem examination was scheduled to determine the cause of death.

Johnson, 22, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck during the first period of the game with the Houston Oilers. Both are American Football League teams.

The injury caused partial paralysis and he underwent surgery shortly after the accident. He had been in traction.

Miner's Body Found in N. Carolina

MURPHY, N.C. (AP) — Rescue workers found the body of Carl Deckery after nearly 24 hours of searching through twisted steel, rock and timber in a tale mine near this western North Carolina mountain community.

Deckery, 59, was trapped when a section of the mine collapsed Saturday afternoon. His body was found Sunday. Another miner, Louis Pope, 49, died Sunday after being pulled out of the debris.

Three other miners were injured.

One of them, Wilford Beavers, said the cave-in "started like a miller starts his corn coming out the hopper. She broke 10-inch pieces of steel like they wasn't there."

Beavers was the less seriously injured of the three. Ray Stewart was in serious condition, but improving, and Beaufort Bryant was reported in good condition.

They were working on a branch tunnel of the 340-foot vertical entrance shaft when the tale shifted. Tale is a chalky substance which is pulverized to form a base for cosmetics. It has a tendency to shift in wet or coal weather.

Says Spending by U.S. Now Is Slower

By EDMOND LEBRETON and ADREN COOPER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, a Republican, said today federal spending has grown at a slower rate during the Kennedy administration than during the last three years Dwight D. Eisenhower was in the White House.

In an exclusive Associated Press interview, Dillon said "it is hard to put a spending tag on one administration as compared to a previous one with that sort of record unless you are ready to attack defense and space."

Dillon served under Eisenhower as undersecretary of state and was named to his present post by President Kennedy.

"He said he still is optimistic about chances for passage of the tax cut bill, which he said will 'do more for our economy and more for curing the balance of payments than any step I know.'"

Dillon said he is counting on increased public support in the next few weeks to speed congressional action on the tax bill, which would provide for a reduction of about $11 billion in individual and corporate income taxes.

Dillon believes that a Brookings Institute report, which forecast that the basic imbalance would be corrected by 1968, was "overly optimistic on the trade side. Consequently, I think we might do better in some of the other areas as diverting more foreign aid buying to the United States."

Regarding the tax bill, he predicted the most important support for it during the crucial Senate consideration "will come from organized groups—the business community, for instance, and labor."

Dillon said unless Congress acts on the bill this year, most Americans probably won't enjoy any benefits in terms of bigger take-home pay until April 1964. The reason, he said, is that the withholding rate could not be reduced until Congress said the last word.

He rejected suggestions that the administration might speed the tax cut by formally postponing some of its domestic programs. Dillon denied that the official Kennedy family is divided into economy and pro-spending blocs.

Most of the increased spending under the present administration, Dillon argued, has been for defense, space activities and interest on the public debt. The latter item, he said, "is uncontrollable."
